Interesting News From Sexsmith

Vol. II, No. 34

By R. A. MACLEOD February 13, 1934

Mr. James Wallace and his bride returned on last Friday's train. Jack Hamilton, formerly of the S. A. R., was a week-end visitor in Sexsmith.

BOYS' HOCKEY TEAMS FROM THE PRAIRIE INVADE SEXSMITH

Two of the junior hockey teams of Grande Prairie journeyed to Sexsmith last week to try conclusions with two of the local teams.

The first game was between the bigger boys, and from our point of view, the line said about this game the better, the score being seven to one in favor of the visitors. The ice was very sticky, and it was hard going for the boys, however, it was not so fast for one as the other.

The game between the midsize, although not as good hockey as the larger boys, was more even, the final score being 0-0. Bob Walker, in goal, made some very fine plays, and it is the opinion that had he been in goal the first game the score would not have been one-sided.

After the games the local boys entertained the visitors to a ban supper at the Orange Hall, where all the little differences which may have cropped up during the game were forgotten.

BUFFALO LAKES HOCKEY TEAM PLAYED SENIORS

Buffalo Lakes hockey team played the local senior team on Sunday last, the final score being 3 to 3 in favor of the home-boys.

The ice was not of the best and the game was hard. A few minutes after the game started, Simons, a new recruit, bagged the ivine for Sexsmith. This was more experience, Bob should make a player. Shortly after this Unbach counted again, for the visitors, and a assist from McCutty, Buffalo Lakes then got going, and got the first tally. Just before the bell sounded, Unbach again scored, making the score 3 to 1.

In the second period Buffalo Lakes was the only one to count, scoring one in the final period. The game ended with a deep sleep, but busy and shot in from the outside, and the first Smith up there. Another rally was made by Buffalo Lakes, which resulted in their third score. Shortly after the final bell, Dempsey put over a swift one, making the fifth goal for Sexsmith.

J. Dewar refereed the game. After the game the visitors were entertained by the local club at "Tank's" on the Blue Lantern on Friday evening, February 9, was an exceedingly good show and was patronized with a capacity house.

All the numbers were good, but the ones which seemed to especially appeal to the audience were the feature dance by Joan Conrad, assisted by Edna Hillman and Dorothy Tanner, and the two little ladies, Miss Alice Adams, age 8, and Miss Dorothy, age 5. There was no levity about the manner in which these two miniature dancers put on their show, as they were a discursive expression on their faces and they certainly put it over with considerable ability and patience must be needed to teach these dances to children of such tender age.

After the show a supper was held, which was kept up until about 4:30 in the morning.

"GOLD DIGGERS OF 1934" WAS EXCEEDINGLY GOOD SHOW

The "Gold Diggers of 1934" at the direction of Horace Miller, dancing instructor of Grande Prairie, put on at the Blue Lantern on Friday evening, February 9, was an exceedingly good show and was patronized with a capacity house.

All the numbers were good, but the ones which seemed to especially appeal to the audience were the feature dance by Joan Conrad, assisted by Edna Hillman and Dorothy Tanner, and the two little ladies, Miss Alice Adams, age 8, and Miss Dorothy, age 5. There was no levity about the manner in which these two miniature dancers put on their show, as they were a discursive expression on their faces and they certainly put it over with considerable ability and patience must be needed to teach these dances to children of such tender age.

LA GLACE NEWS

LA GLACE, Feb. 12.—The La Glace correspondent went on strike in order to get out of the job, but he was badly fooled. He had to come to order and fulfill his plans. His mind now is on matrimonial and hockey.

This week we have one bachelor less in this community, but there are some left-overs of them.

John M. Hoffman and Miss T. Ryerson of Valhalla were married in Hythe last Saturday.

The first cup game of the season was played on January 31, between La Glace and La Glace. The game ended 1-3 in favor of La Glace. The second game was between La Glace and La Glace, February 3, and the score, 4-1, was in favor of La Glace. The third game was on February 10, between La Glace and La Glace, score, 3-6 in La Glace's favor.

Mr. Dewar of Sexsmith refereed the last game, which attracted the biggest crowd. Buffalo Lakes and Sexsmith had a big crowd with them when they play here.

Miss Dorothy Thomson of Kinsman, Alberta, arrived here last week. She is now clerking for C. L. Larson.

If the weather permits a tournament will be held on February 24 at Riverview.

WHIST DRIVE AND DANCE

A whist drive and dance will be held in La Glace Hall on March 2, commencing at 8 p.m. Tickets, Admission, 50 cents. Ladies free. Friberg's orchestra.

Fred Bohm and Frank Kinderwasser resigned as trustees of the La Glace board. Mrs. H. E. Fryer and Martin Haman filed their papers.

Hodolish, when they were in his glorified house. Take it as our word, it is some snowmobile.

And Peter that does like Arthur Haman to be hugging himself. Don't believe it.

HIGH PRAIRIE

HIGH PRAIRIE, Feb. 12.—The High Prairie cattle and horses teams were in the Peace River Circuit Saturday morning.

H. Butterworth's rink came last in third in the Merchants.

The midsize hockey team lost their game 1-0. This game was the highlight of the carnival, the boys on both teams doing splendidly. High Prairie is the proud of this victory from among the workers, played in some thrilling games.

The senior team came back covered with more news than glory, having lost all games. The boys made a good showing, but were not quite good enough to hit the hordes from north of the Peace.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE PARTIES

Two delightful bridge parties were held at the Walker home Tuesday and Wednesday nights, hostesses being Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Walker on Tuesday, and Mrs. Fennell and Mrs. Stevens on Wednesday.

SANKEY AND COMPANION QUIZZED ON KIDNAPPINGS

Vern Sankey, reputed head of a kidnap ring, is shown in Criminal Courts Building, Chicago, following his capture in a barber shop by federal agents. He was quizzed on many nationally-known kidnappings. At the right is Helen Matten, who was arrested with Sankey and held for questioning. Sankey, who admitted taking part in the Rootes and Bonn kidnappings, is well known in Saskatchewan, where railroad men remember him as the friendly driver of a locomotive travelling between Melville and Regina. He lived in Melville about 17 years, and established a reputation as an ardent hockey fan and "crack baseball player."

PROMINENT IN NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATURE OPENING

COSTLY STONES SEEN AT JEWELERS' ANNUAL BALL

An astonishing display of jewels took place at the first annual ball of the Birmingham, England, jewellers. Many single pieces of jewelry on view were worth more than $200,000 each. There were diamonds as big as discs, black and fire opals, emeralds, rubies, amethysts, topaz, and pearls set in platinum and gold rings, brooches and necklaces. The jewels, which were worn by England's loveliest matrons, were worth altogether about $750,000. Mingling among the guests were armed detectives dressed in immaculate "tails."

WED DOUG. JR., "WITHIN MONTH"

GEOLOGIST ADVISES

FRANK PEOPLE TO MOVE

Warning that the railroad, highway, telephone lines and homes of the people in the valley should be moved, Dr. J. A. Allen, geologist at the University of Alberta, declared that a second slide is possible at Frank, Alberta. "Three million cubic yards are definitely prepared to give way on Turtle Mountain," he said. He declared that it was useless to attempt to dynamite sections, but to clear the area "and let nature take its course." Between 25 and 30 persons died in the slide which occurred on April 29, 1933.

Dr. Allen said that he spent some time last summer in examining the mountain and found new fissures, some of them 40 feet wide and hundreds of feet deep, and giving off peculiar noises.

MINE EXPERTS HAVE ALREADY FOUND IRON ORE IN IRISH AREA

DUBLIN.—The green of "Ould Ireland" may be covered by the smoke of industry if the republican government is successful in its announced determination to make the Free State independent of the United Kingdom or any other country for its fuel supplies. French engineers and mining experts engaged in boring operations in the Arigna Valley, County Leitrim, under government auspices, have discovered three rich veins of iron ore. It was announced. They were proceeding to search for coal.

According to Canadian Customs returns during the month of December last, 17,457,963 pounds of wheat, valued at $11,390,536 were exported from Canada.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT IN CANADA COST MORE IN 1932

The cost of municipal government in Canada in 1932 exceeded that of any previous year according to a report of the Citizens' Research Institute, made public recently. In that year the per capita cost was $24.74, as compared with $23.12 in 1931, $20.63 in 1930, and $17.27 in 1929. Toronto was third on the list with a per capita cost of $24.61, behind Victoria with a cost of $26.95, and Edmonton, with $20.21.

U. S. NATIONAL HOPE IS SCRATCHED

The only American-owned, American-bred entry in the Grand National Steeplechase, "Chenango," has been scratched from the steeplechase classic, much to the disappointment of our neighbors to the South. G. H. (Pete) Bartwick, famous amateur rider, was to have ridden the speedy jumper, which he owns. Chenango is shown above with his owner up. Eight other American-owned horses, of English or Irish breeding, are among the thoroughbreds nominated for the race.

SHAKE ON CUBAN RECOGNITION

A happy moment in current Cuban history is recorded by the camera as Jefferson Caffery (left), United States Ambassador-designate to Cuba, shakes hands with Conde De La Torre, Cuban Secretary of State, after notifying him of official recognition of Cuba by the United States. At the right is Manuel Marques Sterling, new Cuban Ambassador to the United States.

The Good Companions met in the hall of the United Church on Monday evening, opening with a business meeting. Mrs. Chappell presided. Mrs. Wilson, the visiting minister, gave an impressive address, followed by a very interesting and instructive talk on the Boy Scout movement by "Doug" Peterson.

This most enjoyable evening was wound up by a sing-song.

LET SCIENCE TAKE A HOLIDAY

The best service that I could render humanity would be to discover some means of destroying half the rubber trees that I have helped to bring to maturity," said a biologist of international fame. During the past

30 years he has been instrumental in planting more than ten million rubber trees, mostly in places where rubber did not grow before. He has discovered methods of protecting rubber trees from diseases and of increasing their growth. "I thought," he blurted out, "that I was doing a good work; now I know that I was wrong."

Man has been applying science to the problems of rubber planting, pioneering, nursing and developing countries industries now realize that science has gone about too rapidly and that the time has come to call a temporary halt.

Rubber is but one instance of the way in which over-production can well-nigh wreck an industry. Coffee provides almost a more striking example. Coffee was dear because the bush which produces it was very delicate. Science made the plants so robust and hardy that the world could not use all the coffee that was produced.

In South America coffee was dumped by the shipload into the sea or used as fuel for railway engines. Thousands of acres of plantations became derelict, hundreds of thousands of men were thrown out of employment, millions of dollars were lost. And coffee is now as dear as it ever was.

Science introduced more methods of fishing. There was a glut of fish, which was too often returned to the sea or used as manure. Vessels must go farther afield, at much greater expense, to fill their holds. Fish is dearer now than it was twenty years ago.

It is largely because science has advanced too quickly that there is a worldwide depression and the greatest time. It is senseless to find quicker and cheaper methods of production until the world is ready to consume what is produced.

Even medicine might benefit by a partial holiday; not, of course, in its search for cures or means of prevention of diseases, but there are many ailments with half-a-dozen different treatments and nobody knows which is best.

Sterilization of cow's milk for instance, has been done in a hundred different ways. The result is that a child is exposed to infection or by recovery from milk-borne disease.

Human body develops an immunity that is life-long.

OUR ARCTIC NEIGHBORS

Eskimo girls mature at the age of eight and bear their first child between six and eight.

The child is usually born in the sixth month and weighs barely a kilogram. At birth the child is washed—and never again for the rest of its life.

Eskimo children never cry—only twist their heads about and content their mothers if they are in trouble. At two years, when they can only just stand on their feet, they are at work, helping to prepare furs for sewing together by pricking small holes in them.

The women do most of the work; men are feeble and live long.

Eskimo women do not live long. Those of the backwoods tribes die, as a rule, between the ages of twenty and twenty-eight years. It is not uncommon for them to go blind and lame as a result of the snow and cold, and fumes from their whale blubber lamps.

Planned children are also treated in this brutal manner.

White settlers among the Eskimos live a moribund life.

BOOK FOR FATHER CHRISTMAS

A certain Father Christmas in York-shire sent a book last Christmas to a boy, aged three years, accompanied by a letter. The letter was a large store and was asked by a kindly Father Christmas what he would like for Christmas.

"A book," replied the boy. A little later the boy visited the Father Christmas and the Father Christmas made the same request, whereupon the boy sharply replied, "I've told 'em, you are silly 'ard, what's 'at 'e want 'n boy again?"

The funeral of Nic Monasterksi of Kiskinew Hill district, who passed away at Grande Prairie on February 7, took place on Monday.

The funeral services were held in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Rev. Father McGuire officiating.

Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at Flying Boat.

NORTH BETTER OFF BY $35,000

It is estimated that the recent shipment of hogs and cattle from the Peace River country brought in some $35,000. It is the opinion of stockmen that there may be a slight drop in the price of live stock, but that it will again advance to the high level in the spring.

SHEEP HEART STEW

For heart stew (steak) simmer the lamb or mutton hearts until tender. Remove and cut in two-inch squares. Slice onions and fry in one-half cup of oil. Add the hearts and potatoes cut the same size as the hearts. Cook with boiling water and stock until the potatoes are done. Thicken liquid and serve hot. Dominion Dept. of Agriculture.

What One Girl Wore

By Betty Brownlee

Tired of winter clothes? Who isn't! When February rolls around, it seems as though the winter has been endless. Heavy coats become actual burdens and no matter how much we look and we have a dull feeling of shabbiness.

Nothing like a trip downtown at this time of the year to revive the spirits. Take a look around you. Look at those coats and hats and shoes. Many of them consisted of simple wooden frocks fastened in novelty wooden frocks and worn with a contrasting color. The coat was

THE DEMAND FOR FOOD

"So I say again, let us not dream of talking at the present time of over-production of food, and that the farmers of the world have come to the limit of what they can produce in order to supply. The demand for food, if people can be enabled to get the kind of food that they would like to eat, has practically only been scratched. It is almost a new world from the present point of view. Therefore, if we are to hold and prosper—not with the slightest hope of meeting the prophesies realized this year, next year, or so on, but I am quite certain it will be ultimately realized—that the cure for agricultural depression is not restriction of production, but the starting up in the world at large of the wheels of trade and exchange."

A. Daniel Hall at the World's Grain Conference.

There is a good reason for overproduction in Europe this summer is expected by steamship and travel organizations, according to William Back, steamship passenger traffic manager, Canadian Pacific, interviewed recently. "The dollar today buys far more than for many years past," said Mr. Back.
